

CALUMET REVISITED:

A MONTHLY FORUM ON THE CALUMET REGION'S PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE

Monthly discussions, led by guest speakers, shed light on the region's rich human history and environmental treasures. Practical suggestions for meeting the needs of region residents while honoring and preserving the natural beauty around us will be shared by participants, also.

Discussions held on the campus of Calumet College of St. Joseph (CCSJ)

Invited speakers for 2018:

Tuesday, April 3. Rm. 200

John Trafny, local author, who will discuss labor strikes in Gary, including a time when federal troops were called in.

This talk is part of CCSJ's Humanities Week.

Tuesday, May 1, Rm. 265

Les Marszalek, archaeologist, who will talk about Native American artifacts unearthed in the Calumet Region

Tuesday, September 4, Rm. 265

Kris Krouse, executive director of Shirley Heinze Land Trust, who will discuss the history of the organization

Baton-swinging police break up a picnic organized by striking workers at Republic Steel in 1937.

Courtesy of Southeast Chicago Historical Society

Time: 5:00 p.m.

Place: Room 200 on April 3, CCSJ, 2400 New York Avenue, Whiting, IN

Jointly sponsored by the Association for the Wolf Lake Initiative and Calumet College of St. Joseph's History Program and made possible through a matching grant from Indiana Humanities in cooperation with the National Endowment for the Humanities and a grant from the Legacy Foundation of Lake County.