

AWLI's 19th annual Wolf Lake Bi-State

WETLANDS, WIND & WATER FESTIVAL

Planned Activities (tentative, subject to change)

Saturday Morning, May 25

Environmental Education Center, 2405 Calumet Avenue, Hammond

9 a.m. Poster Contest
winners honored

10 a.m. View spring wildflowers on hike along Wolf Lake's channel

10 a.m. AWLI after Two Decades

Wolf Lake Park Beach

10 a.m. US Army Corps of Engineers Water Safety exhibit

10 a.m. Fishing Clinic with Joe Kruzcek, Jim Buitter, et al.
(under 16 years)

11:30 a.m. Rowing demonstration by Dr. Joan Crist of Calumet College of St. Joseph

Association for the Wolf Lake Initiative

Saturday Afternoon, May 25

William W. Powers State
Recreation Area, Visitors Ctr
126th and Avenue O

1 p.m. Kite Flying

1 p.m. AWLI after Two Decades

2 p.m. Nature Walk to view spring wildflowers at Wolf Lake Watershed

Sunday Morning, May 26

William W. Powers State
Recreation Area, Visitors Center

7 a.m. Sunrise Worship Service with color guard and Sunrise Singers

8 a.m. Breakfast for participants

8:30 a.m. History of Wolf Lake

9 a.m. Bi-State Bike Ride

Saturday & Sunday, May 25-26

Organized by: Association for the Wolf Lake Initiative (AWLI)

in collaboration with Chicago's 10th Ward Office, Illinois DNR, Lake County Solid Waste Management District, Hammond Port Authority, Chicago Public Library, Calumet College of St. Joseph, Cub Scouts of America

The Association for the Wolf Lake Initiative is a 501c(3) not-for-profit organization and land trust that works across state boundaries to protect and enhance the Wolf Lake watershed.

Free to Public

Visit us at: www.wolflakeinitiative.org

For more info, call 219 933-7149 or 312 220-0120

Association for the Wolf Lake
Initiative