

AWLI's 17th annual Wolf Lake Bi-State

WETLANDS, WIND & WATER FESTIVAL

Planned Activities (tentative, subject to change)

Saturday Morning, May 27

Environmental Education Center, 2405 Calumet Avenue, Hammond

9 a.m. Poster Contest winners honored

10 a.m. View spring wildflowers on hike along wetlands with Dr. Young Choi, Purdue University Calumet

10 a.m. Music from the Mills by Mary Kuzniar

Wolf Lake Park Beach

10 a.m. US Army Corps of Engineers Water Safety exhibit

10 a.m. Canoe Paddle by NWI Paddlers Association, Fishing Clinic (under 16 years)

11 a.m. Rowing demonstration by Calumet College of St. Joseph

Association for the Wolf Lake Initiative

Saturday Afternoon, May 27

William Powers State Fish & Wildlife Area
Visitors Center
126th and Avenue O

1 p.m. Fishing Clinic (under 16 years)

1 p.m. Kite Flying

2 p.m. Discussion of Wolf Lake and its Watershed

Sunday Morning, May 28

Wm. Powers State Fish & Wildlife Area, Visitor's Center

7 a.m. Sunrise Worship Service with color guard and Sunrise Singers

8 a.m. Breakfast for Participants

8:30 a.m. History of Wolf Lake

9 a.m. Bi-State Bike Ride

Saturday & Sunday, May 27-28

Organized by: Association for the Wolf Lake Initiative (AWLI)

in collaboration with Chicago's 10th Ward Office, Illinois DNR, Lake County Solid Waste Management District, Northwest Indiana Paddling Association, Hammond Port Authority, American Legion Illiana Post 220, Chicago Public Library, Southeast Sportsmen's Club, Calumet College of St. Joseph, Boy Scouts of America

Free to Public

The Association for the Wolf Lake Initiative is a 501c(3) not-for-profit organization and land trust that works across state boundaries to protect and enhance the Wolf Lake watershed.

Visit us at: www.wolflakeinitiative.org

For more info, call 219 933-7149 or 312 220-0120

Association for the Wolf Lake Initiative